

MORE NEGRO POLICE SAYS GRAND JURY

Police Examiner and Physician Has Turned Down All Applicants, To Date, As Physically Unfit.

In its report to Circuit Judge Falkenhauer last week, the December grand jury recommended that additional Negro policemen be appointed to the police force in St. Louis as a means of helping to curb crime in this city.

Extract from Report

"We urge upon the Police Department its most vigorous efforts to curb crime, which is at its highest tide during the winter season," the report reads. "We attribute a large part of the crime which is rampant in the city to weapons and urge upon all offenders dealing with this situation to see that the law is vigorously enforced."

"Vigorous police work will greatly minimize crime."

The report recommends that additional Negro policemen be appointed for duty in sections where Negro criminals congregate. We are advised that there has been a great increase in the Negro population in the last few years and that many of the newcomers are not familiar with the law.

"We also urge that in the case of notorious offenders, white and black, the courts enforce the penalties imposed and do not regret or stay the penalties or parole the offenders."

As to whether it had been called to their attention that quite a number of Negroes have sailed in a funeral wa-and have been turned down, the report does not state. But it has been called to our attention that probably over fifty men have really made formal application for appointment on the force, and the medical examiner has turned them down, claiming that not

It is understood that the Chief of Police and the Pollen board should not oppose the appointment of more Negro officers, provided the men who apply can qualify physically before the medical board.

of those who have applied have been accepted as physically sound by the Draft Board.

There have been many complaints by those who have been thus turned down, and some of them are seeking to have other physicians to examine them.
